

“Orphan” Leonards in England

These are some Leonards I've found in English vital records, who may or may not be related to those in our line. Leonard was a fairly common first name in the 1500's and 1600's, and there were a number of churches called St. Leonard's, so word searches are difficult. In some cases all variations on Leonard (Lennard, Lenard, Lenarde, Lyonarde, etc.) were changed to Leonard; in other cases not. I took the name as spelled in the record.

The following come from indexes to English Parish Records on CD by Ancestry.com: London, England General, Hampshire-Kent-Surrey-Sussex, Cornwall-Devon-Dorset-Somerset, and Staffordshire-Warwickshire-Derbyshire. None of these are a complete listing for the county – there are lots of gaps. Since most of these are from indexes, there are presumably more detailed records available at sources.

London
